Summer Vacation - Part IV Dick B Long

Brit is trying to calm down his older sister after they return from their sightseeing trip with their parents. His sister doesn't like the attention he is showing her friend Kit. He knows the feelings she has for him and why, but cannot yet tell her that it's okay. Once he has calmed her a bit, he asks why she set him up with her friend, Kit, the night before.

His father has won the first round of the poker tournament and goes for the second round on the ship, High Seas. His mother, Charlene, calls Chase, the young man she had met the first day, so she will have company when she goes dancing. Chase is eager to go with her and is looking for much more than dancing and company.

Brit joins Caitlyn for a run on the beach then goes to her condo. He doesn't realize it yet, but he is falling in love with this older woman—and she is falling for him.

At the dance club, Charlene has too much to drink again and lets Chase go too far with her and her body...
