"I proclaim the coming of the Uberzombie." Thus speaks Zombiethustra, an undead reincarnation of one of the 19th century's most famous fictional philosophers. As in Friedrich Nietzsche's original, Zombiethustra comes to tell the world of a higher form of being, a transcendent state of consciousness that only those of the strongest will can achieve. But this philosopher-sage must also face new challenges inherent to a post-apocalyptic and undead world. In this re-imagining, one of the preeminent works of 19th century philosophy gains new bite as the tale of a zombie sage who must fight the forces of rot and decay, defeat supernatural enemies, and gain undead allies in his quest to bring enlightenment to the shambling and ravenous hordes.
