Crypto and Co. and The Lady of Lorelei Mr. Ken Dale Polson

Leon Crypto is the team leader to the TV reality show Crypto and Co that investigates Legends and monster sightings, and he has a problem. His sponsors have decided that they do not want another season and that he has one more chance to get the ratings or to move on. With cameras in hand the team of Crypto and Co head to Germany to find the Lady of Lorelei who has recently been in the news because of mysterious barge accident. What they do not know when they arrive is that they are about to embark on dangerous quest that will bring some of them together and leave the rest dead because for the first time they find something real. They will help the Police investigate a hideous murder that someone wants terribly covered up and they will meet new friends the way only to find that one of their team has kept secrets that could spell disaster for them all. They end up forced to take sides in a battle of survival between two mortal enemies that will change their world and how they see reality forever and to survive they will have to depend on their talents and their ability to work together. Can they solve the mystery of the Lorelei in time or will ancient dark forces get another foothold in the world. Caught between modern times and German folklore they will have to uncover what really happened on the Rheine River two thousand years ago and how it will help them save The Lady of Lorelei.
