Joey Rush is dead.

It's what I believed for years. He and I spent one perfect night together at summer camp, but then a tragic accident took him from me. His loss devastated me beyond repair. I've spent every day for eight years mourning a love that I thought could never happen again.

My sister and I are shocked when our mother returns from her Paris vacation a newly married woman. We couldn't wait to meet our mysterious new stepfather... but I never expected anything like this.

His name is Jason Rush. And he has a son.

If Joey Rush is dead, then whose hand am I shaking?

This novella is 20,000 words of steamy encounters, twists, turns, and features a HEA!
