Chosen By The Bear is a stand-alone short story with no cliffhangers.

Katrina has just graduated college and vowed to change her spiraling life for the better as she returns back to her home town. She's always had an attraction to danger and five years ago, danger's name was her ex-boyfriend Brandon Lycant.

She is excited and at the same time terrified when she sees Brandon again after so many years, but something is different about him. There's more to Brandon than meets the eye and Katrina is determined to uncover the truth.

In a forest bonfire, they meet a wondering hiker Nigel, who is drunk and starts bothering them. Brandon gets angry, starts to fight and knocks Nigel out. They leave him there only to discover that someone killed him in the night.

While the mystery unfolds, a dangerous romance develops between Katrina and Brandon and she is soon to learn his shocking secret. A secret that can threaten her very own life. A secret that Brandon seems to have no power and control over.

And through passion and romance, the truth unveils and before the full moon falls, they will discover if true love is worth dying for.

Can true love really be this dangerous?
