FORGIVENESS DISCIPLESHIP VOLUME 2

How to Forgive: The Roadmap to Letting Go

Why is it hard to forgive?

Maybe you are ready to forgive, but the one who offended you refuses to own up to their errors and apologize. You may reason, “Why should I forgive when I am living with the painful consequences of the offense?” This book looks squarely at Christian forgiveness, why we need to forgive and the various reasons why it is so hard. You will learn to overcome the roadblocks to forgiveness and forgive for God’s glory and for your own good.

Learn What Forgiveness should be based on

You will learn the foundation on which to base your forgiveness. You will learn the “limit” to your forgiveness. For example, forgiveness does not imply that you resume a toxic relationship. Basing your forgiveness on a biblical foundation will help you to enjoy the benefits of forgiveness.

How do I Forgive Myself

In this volume, you will learn how to forgive yourself for the sins against God and against others. You will learn that no sin is beyond pardon. You will learn why and how to forgive yourself.

How do I forgive someone?

Learn how to forgive. Many people want to forgive but do not know how to. Sometimes they are taking giant steps and end up not being able to forgive. This book will show you how to take baby steps and forgive. You will learn how to avoid superficial forgiveness, so that you will enjoy the full benefits of true forgiveness.

You will learn of the examples recorded in the Bible of those who forgave, and these will aid in encouraging you to begin on the path to forgiveness.

Each Chapter ends with a Forgiveness Prayer

At the end of each chapter, there is a customized Forgiveness Prayer to help readers approach God, in order to start on their path to forgiveness.

The chapters are short for easy reading This volume has examples and illustrations on forgiveness. Dr. Ikomi shares her own life experience of how she forgave the man who killed her husband and three children on an interstate while driving drunk.

About The Author
