Pushin' 40, a mystery, is a romantic love affair between Donovan Maxwell and his childhood sweetheart Cheri Stanton. They met in third grade. Donovan was nine and Cheri was a Senior working as a teacher's helper during her study hall. Donovan developed a crush. Cheri was flattered. The next time Donovan saw Cheri, he was twenty-one and working for the Chronicle. She was thirty, and working for Channel Three. The nine-year age difference isn't so great anymore. They begin dating, fall in love, and marry. The happy marriage turns bad after rivalry seeps into their relationship. After fifteen years they divorce. Donovan falls in love with Rita Scrugs, a cop, and his contact within the police department. At first his love is unrequited. Their relationship buds as they work together on the homicide of coed Sonya Peach. Cheri once again enters the picture after a sex video of Donovan and Sonya turns up. Cheri is quick to cut her ex down on the six o'clock news. Why did Sonya make the video? Why did she pick Donovan? The plot thickens after more videos of Sonya and other unsuspecting men show up.
