The Invisible Writing: The second volume of Arrow In The Blue. Autobiography 1932-1940. Arthur Koestler

This book tells of the author's travels through Russia and remote parts of the Soviet Central Asia; his life as an exile, of the months spent in Spanish prisons under sentence of death, and in French concentration camps. It ends with his escape from occupied France in 1940 to England, where he found stability and a new home. An epilogue brings the story up to the present day.
