Kendall is a quiet girl from the suburbs whose only dream is to become a successful social worker and make her father proud. When she meets a slick talking money maker named Chance her life changed from basic to glamorous in a matter of months. She never thought she could be so happy with everything she wanted at her fingertips. When her best friend Amber tries to warn her to slow down she refuses to take her advice, believing Chance is the one for her. She goes above and beyond for Chance doing whatever he asks her to. Overtime Chance shows Kendall his true colors and she has no choice but to try and move on with her life. After losing her best friend to a jail sentence she feels like she has nobody in her corner and runs back to Chance. His lying and cheating ways cause Kendall to finally put her foot down to end the relationship for good, but Chance won't take Kendall leaving him as an option. She has no other choice but to make the bold decision to up and leave. On her own in a whole new city she runs into several different people. Some who want to help her succeed and others who want her to stay in their shadows. Her new life is full of fast money and living by no rules. What will she do when her past comes back to haunt her new life? Can she ever escape Chance and his controlling ways? With fast money, lies, deceit, broken promises and life changing secrets revealed will Kendall be able to remain the good girl she is at heart or will she find out how easy it is for a good girl to go bad.
