Free to Be Insane Kathie Rodkey

Katie Ramie is no stranger to abuse. At the age of six, Katie witnessed her mother kill two of her children by throwing them from a third-floor apartment window. It was her mother's intent to kill all five of her children, including Katie, before she was ultimately stopped.

Kathie Rodkey takes you on a personal and painful journey through Katie's life, beginning with that fateful day in 1953. Based on an actual incident, this story will open your eyes to the harsh realities of a broken system that has put at stake the lives of thousands of young children whose parents are mentally unstable - parents who are free to be insane.
