Michelin Red Guide 2006 New York City: Hotels & Restaurants (Michelin Red Guides)

The Michelin Guide New York City 2006 is the latest title in a world renowned series of hotel and restaurant guides. Michelin's inspectors have selected over 500 of the best restaurants and 50 of the best hotels in all categories of price and comfort using a rigorous and anonymous inspection process.

This guide is perfect for New Yorkers as well as the 4 million visitors who come to the Big Apple each year.

Key Features: • Over 500 restaurant and 50 hotel selections • Two restaurant listings per page • Detailed descriptions for every establishment (in English) • Color photos for hotels • Recipes from chefs at star-rated restaurants • Neighborhood maps highlight the location of restaurants and hotels • Symbols convey a wealth of information in a small space, making the guide portable and easy to use. We use many of the same symbols found in our European guides.
