Tennis: Results and statistics of the four Grand Slam tournaments Women's Singles and Men's Singles 2015 Edition Natalie Langlois

If you are passionate about tennis and the four big championship tournaments in particular, you will find full records for the men's and women's singles finals for every single one of the tournaments in this book. I would like to provide full records related to each tournament from the onset, as well as statistics I have worked out and would like to share with you, for example the number of different champions from the tournaments' history, the seniors, the various champions' nationalities, tallies of the results... as well as some stunning and little known facts. Happy reading and I hope you enjoy remembering the forgotten champions of tennis. If you like this wonderful sport, let's pay the players tribute. I would like to thank them for making millions dream since the first Wimbledon tournament gentlemen's final held on Thursday July 19, 1877 on a grass field in Surrey.
