Royal's mother died when he was born. Caleb's mother just recently passed away. Can two little boys in need of a mother be the key to happiness for everyone?

For the first time in her life, Felicity Selkirk was looking forward to her future. Her father had a good job, her brother Royal was starting to overcome his handicaps and she was finally able to take some time for herself. But that was before one single event turned her happy world upside down.

Hayden Crandle was a hard working, responsible rancher and the eldest son in a family of three boys. With two brothers who had no interest in ranching, it was up to Hayden to keep the family business running smoothly. But when the family suffers an immeasurable loss, he suddenly finds his well ordered world spiraling out of control.
