It was a great turning point in my ministry, when, after much thought and study and meditation, I became satisfied that the Baptism with the Holy Spirit was an experience for to-day and for me, and set myself about obtaining it. Such blessing came to me personally, that I began giving Bible readings on the subject, and with increasing frequency as the years have passed. God in His wondrous grace has so greatly blessed these readings, and so many have asked for them in printed form, convenient for circulation among their friends, that I have decided to write them out in full for publication. It is an occasion of great joy that so many and such excellent books on the person and work of the Holy Spirit have appeared of late. I wish to call especial attention to two of these: "Through the Eternal Spirit," by James Elder Cumming and "The Spirit of Christ," by Andrew Murray. In the following pages I speak uniformly of the Holy Spirit, but in the quotations from the Bible retain the less desirable phraseology there used—"The Holy Ghost"—except in those instances where the translators themselves varied their usage. Probably most of the readers of this book already know that "the Holy Spirit" and "the Holy Ghost" are simply two different translations of precisely the same Greek words. It seems very unfortunate, and almost unaccountable, that the English revisers did not follow the suggestion of the American Committee, and, for "Holy Ghost", adopt uniformly the rendering "Holy Spirit."

As a college student exactly feel bored for you to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's internal or real their hobby. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring along with can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this The Baptism with the Holy Spirit can make you feel more interested to read.
