A Roaring Adventure in Children's Fiction

There is a mountain on the outskirts of town. A mountain no human has ever climbed. Deep within that mountain's caves is an astonishing secret.

Dragons are real.

One day a precocious little girl named Alana discovers a small black dragon in her backyard. His wings are covered in stars, and he tells her that is what makes him one of the Sky Dragons. Together, they will face a dangerous sorcerer who wants to capture the dragon and use him for something truly scary: ingredients.

In the first installment in the Tiny Dragons series readers will meet Mister Six, a mysterious cat who is actually a great warrior among his own kind. Lady Moon, the Queen of Sky Dragon Mountain. James, Alana's older brother who is doing his best to be man of the house. And finally, Alana and Star, a little girl and her dragon, who will show you that the best things of all come in really small packages.

A brand new children's dragon adventure series by best-selling author Bernard Schaffer, written for children ages 6 to 99.
