Life is about second chances.

A chance to forgive himself.

A chance to redeem herself.

A chance for both to start over.

Geneva Barton may have changed her ways, but she still knows how to fight. Now she has more to protect than just her reputation. The bitch may be gone, but the fighter just stepped into the ring. And this time she plans to win.

Berk Rigby has returned to Colorado after a three year absence from the sport he loves. After winning the gold medal in snowboarding at this year's winter X Games, he should be riding high. But when a familiar face in the crowd of fans reveals some shocking news, his whole world is turned upside down. Now his future is more uncertain than ever and he's not sure he can face it.

As Berk and Geneva come together for a mutual cause, will they find the courage to love again? Or will the mistakes of their pasts drive them further apart?

"A gripping and emotionally diverse read. Characters that were easy to both like and dislike in equal measure but ones that were on the right side of realistic.

Situations that were hard and harsh but that gave the characters time to heal, explore, grow and embrace."
