King was eye candy to most women. He was tall and dark, with hazel eyes and a strong tattoo-adorned physique. Raised in the streets of Atlanta, he came with a thug reputation and a fierce attitude. After being in and out of prison, this time he came home with dreams of being the next Floyd Mayweather, ready to go legit with the only legal talent he possessed, boxing. However, King had one problem, and that was his baby's mama; Harmony. She'd also had dreams for him, and she wanted him to go back to the King he was in the past. She wanted her Trap King so she could be his Trap Queen. King knew Harmony was ratchet and constantly caught up on street gossip and the opinion of others. She had definitely been his number one until the day he met Delishus in a grocery store parking lot before he went to prison. She was thick, had curves for days, and had an even better heart. She was the true definition of a beautiful black woman. He couldn't resist her, and when King went to prison, she stayed down with him the entire time— but so did Harmony. She felt as though she'd had too much invested into him to let any other woman steal her man away from her. Even though King liked his women BBW, his baby mama wasn't giving him up without a fight, even if somebody's life depended on it.
