Fifty percent of the 65 million dogs in the U.S. will have cancer, yet most caretakers know little or nothing about caring for a dog with cancer. Author Laurie Kaplan, MSC, medical animal writer, provides a soup-to-nuts education about canine cancer for the layperson. Laurie also shares the story of her own canine cancer survivor, Bullet, and their triumphant battle against his cancer.

Help Your Dog Fight Cancer educates owners about causes, prevention and early detection. Covers diagnostics, treatment options, traditional and holistic therapies and home care options including diet and supplements and side effect remedies. The final chapter covers palliative care (Pawspice), euthanasia, cremation/burial and grief.
