Thirteen Reasons Why:

The Review

This is a review on Jay Asher's novel.

There are lessons in every event. And there is no exception to that rule. To learn just one lesson from each event would make prosperous beyond belief! And the sooner in life these lessons are learned the better the person would be. In this story a regular high school student is going to re-discover about his greatest asset: his own spirit! The lessons of life connect people in ways, which, often, are not what they seem to be. Let us walk through the story. Let us explore the big picture. The riddles, answers, and all the "unwritten notes" await your discovery. Always learn by instruction. Read The Review to find out. Happy reading! Enjoy!
